Transformed by the Word: Encounters with Jesus

By Lynda Wake and Deborah Fox

The Bible is a living, breathing testimony of God's love for his people. As a Bible translation organisation, Wycliffe Australia is committed to helping bring this message of love, hope and grace to marginalised communities in the languages they understand best. Projects are taking place all over the world, and within Indigenous communities in Australia, to create a range of written and audio-visual translations of the Bible.

This book is designed to help you experience the freedom that comes from enjoying God's Word - not just seeing it as a requirement or chore that comes with being a follower of Jesus. The stories that fill these pages are all based on the true events and testimonies of individuals, churches, families and whole communities that have been transformed by a deeper understanding of Scripture. It is our hope and prayer that you will be encouraged by these stories as you connect with God's Word through the reflections posed at the end of each chapter.

NEW MEMBERS

Jack and Rachel Hibbard

Jack and Rachel share a passion for cross-cultural ministry - valuing the beauty and diversity of languages and cultures of the people that God has created. They have both completed study in education, linguistics and theology.

Jack is serving with SIL Australia's Flourishing Communities Project in Melbourne, Australia. This involves partnering with migrant community leaders to discuss how language use and cultural identity are intricately connected and can be related to issues within their communities here in Australia. Rachel is keen to develop relationships and work with women and children through literacy and education.

Along with their two boys, Jack and Rachel desire to see people in diaspora communities experience joy in embracing their language and culture whilst living in Australia, and ultimately, be a part of the kingdom of God. We appreciate your partnership in this ministry!
