Climbing Every Mountain:

A Family's Journey of Faith in South Asia

By Jessie Glover, 2022

This new release is a memoir by Jessie Glover of incredible stories about the ways God has shown her his love and provision throughout her life. From a country village to Himalayan heights, Jessie Glover's journey in education, language development and Bible translation in South Asia is a testimony to God's faithfulness.

A month after her birth, Jessie lost her mother, her family and her home. Being raised in the love of a foster family, she suffered other losses also - a brother and an intended fiance. Yet through these tragedies, she experienced God's loving presence in such a way that she risked everything to follow a call to the other side of the earth. With no money and a baby on the way, Jessie and husband Warren set sail on the Galileo Galilei for India.

It was the beginning of a life-long journey across plains, mountains and deserts, cities, villages and hill stations, creating family with the peoples of South Asia. Their purpose was to share the Scriptures with the languages of each heart. Supported by a community of earthly saints and a host of angels, they followed the challenging call to share the Christ story through a myriad of languages.

Climbing Every Mountain is a story of an ordinary girl surprised by God into an extraordinary life. Honest, loving and funny, it acknowledges the headaches and heartbreaks of the mission experience but rejoices in the goodness of a faithful Father who walked with her every step of the trail.

Jessie and her husband, Warren, have been Wycliffe Australia members for over 50 years.
