New Book Spotlight: East African Adventures

(The Hunting Safari, The Canoeing Safari and The Village Safari)

Are you ready for a safari adventure? This series adds the unique experience of life in another culture to the classic 'Choose Your Own Adventure' genre. Written by T.J. Matthews (who grew up in Africa as the child of Wycliffe workers) and based on real events, readers are invited to join in on the excitement and challenges experienced by T.J. and provides the opportunity for readers to grapple with the same decisions and consequences (real and possible).

Suitable for primary and middle school aged children/teens, these books are perfect for families to read together or to gift to a child. Books are available for purchase on the website or via the paper form for $21.90 ($14.90 each + $7 postage).

The Hunting Safari: Your adventure begins the moment you step off the plane in Tanzania. The Hunting Safari welcomes you to join in on the fun with missionary kids Dave and Danielle as they go on a hunting trip in the untamed African bush surrounding Lake Victoria for an afternoon full of adrenaline-pumping, eye-popping, life-threatening adventures. Your survival is dependent on your choices. Will you survive?

The Canoeing Safari: Join your friends in exploring the islands and caves surrounding Lake Victoria, Tanzania, in this heart-racing adventure in a canoe. But, whatever you choose, be careful not to fall into the water ... you never know what is lurking below the surface.

The Village Safari: What do a wedding, a market, monkeys and biting ants have in common? They are all part of the everyday adventures of living in a village in Tanzania. But, the outcome of each experience is totally dependent on what you choose. Will you get to see the rest of the wedding service? Will you be attacked by monkeys? What adventures will you face as you spend your holidays with your Wycliffe friends in Tanzania?

NEW MEMBER

Rachel Kopke

With a background in primary education, university ministry and member care, Rachel has experience working in Australia and Thailand. These experiences grew her vision for a space for Christian cross-cultural workers and their families to come and receive support, encouragement, counselling and rest. Her heart leapt when she heard about The Red Sea Counselling and Member Care Centre opening in Cairns!

The Red Sea Centre is strategically located near TreeTops Lodge, Cairns, where many Wycliffe, MAF, and other cross-cultural workers stay when they return to Australia or travel from Pacific nations for respite or medical care.

Rachel moved to Cairns in August 2023 to work at The Red Sea in an administrative role. Her prayer is that God will use The Red Sea to bless and strengthen those on the field as they share the Good News and make God's Word accessible to all peoples.
