POSITIONS VACANT

Could you join the Saxbys in the beautiful Malukan Islands?

Lilian and David Saxby are excited about what God is doing through the Ambonese Malay translation.

Lilian says:

I just love working as a team with locals because they just have so much knowledge of their culture and the language. They are very welcoming. They have big hearts. Actually, our work with them as expats is not that much compared to how much they do. It's just so rewarding how much we learn from them in the process.

There is a need for all sorts of people and skills to be working with the Saxbys:

We need translation consultants, translation facilitators, media and communications advisors and literacy workers. We are also having trouble finding illustrators to provide illustrations for the translated Scripture. I would like to encourage you to consider being part of what God is doing in the lives of the Indonesian people. Take a step of faith by seeing what God is doing here. If you would like to know more information or you would like to know how to join us here in Ambon, contact the Wycliffe office.

Operations Manager, Vanuatu

We have an urgent need for someone with the right experience and skills to be the Operations Manager for SIL Vanuatu in Port Vila. You would assist the language teams working in the country as well as the administrative team. This is a full-time role, either short-term for one or two years, or longer term, and is vital to the success of our work in Vanuatu!
