In Search of the Source: A first encounter with God's Word

by Neil Anderson
with Hyatt Moore

$29

INCLUDES
POSTAGE

Neil and Carol Anderson and their family lived and worked among the Folopa people of Papua New Guinea. Their aim was to learn a language which had never been written, develop an alphabet, analyse the grammar and eventually translate the New Testament while living in and learning a new culture different from their own. This is their story.

NEW MEMBERS

Jared and Bethany are planning to go to a people group in Vanuatu, a country that still has dozens of languages without any part of the Bible translated. Many people from these language groups desire to have the Bible in their own language and have been waiting for help for a long time.

Go to wycliffe.org.au/member/jared-bethany/ for more information.

POSITIONS VACANT

Applications Coordinator

Do you love working with people and supporting the work of Bible translation? We are looking for someone to take responsibility for the Applications section of the Personnel Department. We require either a current member or a volunteer with the right qualifications and experience.

For more information, or to apply, go to wycliffe.org.au/positions/applications-coordinator/

Typesetting and Graphic Design

Are you looking for a way to use your creativity to support the work of Bible translation? If so, your skills are needed! To help prepare Scripture materials for publication, we need designers to typeset translated Scriptures. There are also a number of other projects waiting for design work to begin, including books, music labels, and promotional material.

For more information, or to apply, go to wycliffe.org.au/positions/typesetters-and-graphic-designers/

Scripture Engagement Workers

We are looking for people to come alongside churches and communities, to encourage people to use the Scriptures and biblical resources available in their language. This could include helping them to increase their ability to read portions of vernacular Scripture, and helping produce new resources. This role will be working with local church leaders, translators, and AuSIL staff members.

For more information, or to apply, go to wycliffe.org.au/positions/literacy-scripture-engagement-workers/

Please note: opportunities to serve with Wycliffe are unsalaried. But don't let that stop you! Countless numbers of Wycliffe members can testify to God's provision and the joy of partnership with a team of prayer and financial supporters.
