Waiting Well With Jesus

By Lynda Wake

$35

EACH, PLUS
$11 POSTAGE

'Good grief does not just happen. Good grief is intentional.'

How can grief ever be 'good'? This new devotional from Lyn Wake helps readers to use their tears to draw nearer to Jesus. After losing her beloved teenage daughter Bethany to brain cancer, Lyn cried out to God for help. As she accepted Jesus' invitation to journey with him through the grief, she experienced how to wait well with him.

This devotional journal is the resource Lyn wished she had in her deepest grief. Each week has a different word to reflect on, along with personal stories, Bible references, journal reflections and a prayer, which gently help us to draw nearer to God who understands our pain.

In the midst of our heartbreak, Lyn tenderly reminds us of our breath-taking inheritance in Christ, discovering rich treasures along the way that can only be found through a costly veil of tears.

NEW MEMBER

Anne Spragg

Do you remember what you wanted to do with your life when you were an eight-year-old? Did you have aspirations of being an actor or a doctor or a marine biologist? When Anne was eight, God placed a passion for Bible translation in her heart after a Wycliffe member spoke at her Sunday School about her work in Papua New Guinea.

Now Anne is on the path to turning her dream as a young child into a reality. She was recently accepted as a member of Wycliffe Australia and is currently acquiring the skills necessary for Bible translation at SILA in Kangaroo Ground.

To find out more about Anne's journey or to join her team of supporters, visit wycliffe.org.au/member/anne/

POSITIONS VACANT

Retreats Hosts - Kangaroo Ground, VIC

Wycliffe Australia is blessed with a beautiful, large property at its National Centre in Kangaroo Ground, which we have the privilege of sharing with various groups and individuals through our Retreats ministry.

The Retreats team is looking for physically fit, servant-hearted, mission-minded people to come and live onsite free of charge and help with welcoming guests, basic cleaning, and general oversight of the presentation of our lodge accommodation.

For more information or to apply, go to wycliffe.org.au/positions/retreats-hosts/
